

Pair Argue Own Case in Court, Lose

Their attempt to act as their own attorneys were unavailing Friday for two men charged with speeding and engaging in a speed contest, as a South Bay Municipal Court jury found them guilty on both counts.

Charles F. Thompson, Long Beach, and Luis Molina, Wilmington, were charged with going 65 in a 45-mile zone on Pacific Coast Hwy., near Crenshaw Blvd. last Nov. 14. They were also charged with engaging in a speed race.

The two men argued their own cases before the jury, which is unusual in such cases. Usually cases before a jury are presented by attorneys. However, Attorney Robert Pannell, who acted as prosecutor, was the winner. The two men maintained that they could not have been going as fast as the officer reported. The jury was not convinced, however.

Judge Otto B. Willett gave the men a two-day suspended sentence on the speeding count and a $78 fine or 15 days in jail on the speed contest charge.

Veterans' Tests Start Monday at THS Cafeteria

General Educational Development (GED) Tests will be given to qualified veterans at Torrance High School Cafeteria, beginning Monday, from 7 to 10 p.m. Testing will continue Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and end on Monday evening, Jan. 21.

The five tests, covering English, mathematics, social studies and science, require approximately two hours each or a maximum of 10 hours. A veteran must pass each test with a score of 35 and average 45 on the entire battery of tests.

Veterans wishing to take advantage of this opportunity to take these GED tests as partial completion of requirements for a high school diploma should arrange to be present on the five evenings on which they will be given. If work or other conditions do not permit this, veterans should notify the Adult Education Office in order to make other arrangements.

A veteran whose score on any individual test is lower than 35 or whose average score is lower than 45, will be allowed to re-take the examinations before the end of the school year.

Tartar Teen Talk

Tartarville elections are coming up next week so any Tartars who are planning on running for office should obtain their application blanks from the student activities office.

Torrance High provides itself on the fact that over 65 percent of the students vote in student body elections, how about pulling it up to 100 percent this semester? Today is the deadline for turning in application blanks.

Tryouts for the Tartar Variety Show were closed Tuesday. The Drama Department is really getting to work on this and it should be really good this year. It is open to the public so when you see advertising posters around town, make a mental note and be sure to see it.

Say all you Tartars who are supposed to have such wonderful school spirit, where have you been at the basketball games?

We won third place in the Beverly Hills tournament last week. Richard Ruffel won a place on the first string all tournament team for the second year, also Gene Crenshaw won a place on the second string team.

Tuesday, we played our first league basketball game against Centennial and tomorrow night at 7, we play Santa Monica, in the Tartar gym. So lets have everyone turn out for the game, student and parents alike.

There were many parties in the homes of Tartars during the Christmas vacation but from what I hear the one held by Ollie Lesson was one of the best. The party was open to everyone and was held Dec. 26. Everyone played w.b.o and congo drums, danced and, as usual, ate.

Two Crenshaw department stores seem to have been the Tartar campus center for the two weeks before Christmas. I'm sure all the students who were excited to work the week before Christmas vacation wish to thank their parents, teachers and the administration of Torrance High School who made it possible for most of them to repay, in part, their families for past Christmases. Also, our thanks are extended to the merchants of the community for letting so many of us work for them.
